NEW POSTAL STATION.

Capitol Hill to Have Additional Mail Fa-

THE REPUBLICAN'S efforts to have a postal station established for the convenience of the inhabitants of the eastern district have at length been crowned with success. A branch office length been crowned with success. A branch office similar to the one in Georgetown, which for all purposes will be exactly the same as the central office, will be opened on the 15th of next mouth on Capitol Hill, and will be known as the East Capitol Station. At this station all business, such as registering letters, money orders, &c., that is transacted at the central office can be done. There will be a general delivery and a free carrier service attached. Pouches will be made up and sent directly to the trains without Beath of Mr. George W. Riggs.
Mr. George W. Riggs, the well-known banker, died yesterday marning at three o'clock, at his country residence, Green Hill, Montgomery made up and sent directly to the trains without going through the central office. The location has not yet been determined on, but will probably be located on East Capitol street, probably near Third street, if this location suits the wishes of the majority of the inhabitants of that section. Post-master Aingeris anxious to hear public expression on the subject, and would like those interested in the matter to publicly express their prefer-ences, either by calling a meeting or addressing a communication to him. The Pest-Office Department will readvertise the mail messenger ser-rice between the central office and Georgetown Force of the new office will consist of a superintendent, a clerk, seven letter-carriers, and two auxiliaries. Although these have not been determined upon, there will be but one new appointment, that of the superintendent. The rest will be detailed from the central of and the East Capitol station, and in regulation auxiliaries. Although these have not been determined upon, there will be but one new appointments. In respect to the memory of the late Goorge wents, that of the superintendent. The rest will be detailed from the central office.

District of Columbia Militia, as follows:

Sir: Discontent and insubordination existing in my command caused me some days since to request by letter that the company should select a new captain. After considerable cleay F. S. Hodgson was elected, having received seven out of ten votes cast. Now, I promised upon a receipt from the captain elect for the public property in the hands of the company, of which I feel myself the custodian, to forward through regiments it headquarters to the President of the United States my resignation. This receipt has so far falled to put in an appearance, and as I have refused to hold further communication with them, and as I have every reason to suspect the company virtually disbanded, I appeal to you for instructions.

Colonel Fleming indersed upon this communication

Colonel Fleming indorsed upon this commu-sication, "Respectfully forwarded for the information of headquarters. I have not been officially informed or notified of Captain McCathran's resig-nation. Until such resignation has been forwarded

E. L. Dorsey has been notified, in reply to his request for a plank sidewalk from Connecticut to Prospect avenue, on the Columbia road, that the appropriations by Congressare for specific purposes, and the only appropriation for the roads outside of the city is for "repairs of county roads." To construct a plank sidewalk is not a repair. There is, however, an appropriation for "purchase of mate-rials for permit work," and under this either lumber or bricks could be bought and furnished, provided the parties will lay the walks at their own

AT CAMP-MEETING.

Sermon by Rev. George V. Lench-Other ndence of THE REPUBLICAN

WASHINGTON GROVE, Aug. 24.-Rev. George V. Leach, of the Fourth Street M. E. Church, preached last night to a large congregation, taking his text from the sixteenth chapter of Acts. twenty-ninth and thirtleth verses: "Then he called for a light, and sprang in, and came trembling and fell down before Paul and Silas, and brought them out, and said,
'Sirs, what must I do to be saved?'"
This discourse was followed by Rev. Richard Norris in an earnest exhortation, and six came forward to the mourners' bench, three of whom were converted. The prayer-meeting at half-past eight o'clock this morning was led by Rev. Mr. Reed, of Uniontown, and was a very interesting and profitable meeting. The main service at the tabernacle to-day was commenced promptly at the hour of half-past ten ociety held its regular monthly meeting last night o'clock s. m., the pulpit being occupied by the were opened by the singing of Hymn 283, followed

Oh, where shall rest be found—

Rest for the weary soul?

The speaker chose for his text a portion of the thirty-sixth verse of the eighth chapter of Provertes: " But he that sinneth against Me wrongeth his own soul." Any synopsis sufficiently brief to obtain space in your columns would be doing ininstice to THIS MASTERLY DISCOURSE.

Its strong portrayal of the nature of sin, with its fearful consequences depicted in language at once forcible and chaste, marked it as one of the ables delivered during camp. The children's meeting at two o'clock and the young people's meeting at half-past three o'clock; were largely attended. These meetings are as interesting and productive of as much good as any other service of the camp. The religious services at Washington Grove, which commenced August 12, will close to-day. The last meeting will be held to-night at half-past seven o'clock in the tabernacle, under the supervision of Rev. Richard Norris, of Madison avenue, Balti-more, Md., who will conduct it in such a way as in his judgment may be deemed best. Mr. Norris has done more by his earnest, sincere, and soul-stirring exhortations to convince sinners of the evil of their way and throw themselves at the Throne of Mercy than any other preacher on the ground. The camp, which is to come to a close this evening, is considered by those having it in charge to have been as success in every particular. There have been entire harmony and unanimity of labor among the tent and cottage-holders, who have upheld and seconded the efforts of the spiritual leaders in the most cordial manner. A correct idea of the good done cannot be derived from the inversions (some thirty in number), as there has been a spiritual awakening the genuineness of which cannot be gainsaid, and the awakening influence of which will hereafter be felt in the church. This has been the most orderly camp held here for years. Not an act of disorder nor a jar-ring circumstance has occurred to mar the peace and comfort of the campers, and no complaints have been hed from. The gentlemen who have had the manage tent of the camp have discharged their difficult to the satisfaction of all. A fea-To Piney Point by a palace steamer on hotel by Wash B.
